

Show your support for the innovators shaping the future of independent convenience retail

30^{RN} UNDER THIRTY

RN's 30 Under Thirty campaign shines a light on the rising stars working in independent retail, those who are making a real difference – to their communities, their stores or their bottom line.

Running from May to November 2023, 30 Under Thirty is a fantastic opportunity for you to position yourself as a leading supporter of the younger generation of independent retailers, as well as a champion for the innovation and modernisation of the channel.

The programme

May 2023-July 2023: Campaign launch, with multi-platform marketing to raise awareness and drive entries.

August 2023: Judging process, with a panel of industry experts from within Newtrade Media.

October 2023: Winners announcement, via digital, social and print media.

November 2023: Publication of a 30 Under Thirty winners supplement (print and digital versions), with a full profile of all 30 winning retailers.

November 2023: Winners' hampers distributed.

Spring 2024: Winners' celebration event.

Exclusive partnership packages are available, giving you visibility throughout the six months of the 30 Under Thirty campaign.
